Matthew Wright represents financial institutions and other businesses in litigation and transactional matters. Financial institutions rely on Mr. Wright to enforce debtor's contract obligations through court proceedings and bankruptcy filings. He also acts as outside general counsel to several businesses, for whom he handles regulatory, transactional, and corporate governance matters. A regular speaker to various associations and commerce organizations, Mr. Wright is recognized as a subject matter expert on the topic of collection litigation.

A skilled litigator, Mr. Wright draws on extensive experience representing plaintiffs in commercial disputes to guide each case to a timely resolution of settlement or judgment. Since 2009 Mr. Wright has represented financial institutions in over 100 state court proceedings, many of which included sequestration/replevin proceedings to recover his client's collateral. His cases are regularly resolved within 90 days of filing. Mr. Wright's plaintiff's work also includes representing businesses in pursuit of overdue accounts receivables, and representing creditors in bankruptcy proceedings.

Mr. Wright earned a Bachelor of Business Administration degree from the nationally renowned Baylor University School of Entrepreneurship, an experience he regularly draws upon in his capacity as principle of the Wright Law Group, PLLC. Mr. Wright attended law school at California Western School of Law.

Mr. Wright was admitted to legal practice in Texas in 2006, is licensed to practice before all courts of the state of Texas, and is a member of the Texas Bar Association, The National Equipment Finance Association (NEFA), The Equipment Leasing and Finance Association (ELFA) and the Commercial Law League of American (CLLA).
