

Practice Groups

Commercial
Litigation/Business Disputes
Consumer Financial Services

Education

B.A., Hollins College
J.D., Temple University

Bar Admissions

Pennsylvania
New Jersey
Delaware
United States District Court for the Northern District of Texas
United States District Court for the Central District of Illinois
The United States District
Courts for the Eastern,
Middle, and Western Districts of Pennsylvania

Deirdre M. Richards concentrates her practice in bankruptcy litigation, loan workouts and commercial litigation. She serves clients in State and Federal Courts in Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware in areas including:

Prosecuting Objections to Discharge and Dischargeability based on fraud in Bankruptcy Courts

Defending Clients in fraudulent transfer Litigation in Bankruptcy Courts.

Litigating for clients in State and Federal Courts.

Litigating breach of contract and other actions for clients in the equipment leasing and financing area.

Ms. Richards is a member of the Legal Committee for the Equipment Leasing and Finance Association, a board member of the Philadelphia Chapter of the International Woman's Insolvency and Restructuring Confederation, member of American Bankruptcy Institute and the American Bar Association.

Experience

Successfully represented national equipment leasing company which objected to discharge of individual chapter 7 debtor and obtained order that is $100,000.00 judgment was non-dischargeable.

Successfully represented national equipment leasing company which objected to individual chapter 11 debtor's discharge and obtained settlement requiring $100,000.00 paid to creditor.

Successfully represented chapter 11 trustee and debtors who confirmed chapter 11 plans of reorganization.

Successfully represented chapter 7 trustee in commercial disputes against creditors and insiders of debtor.

