Peter B. Foster is a member of the New York State Bar, and has been practicing law since 1984. Mr. Foster is experienced in the handling of litigation and bankruptcy matters, particularly involving collections and equipment finance issues, as well as the enforcement of money judgments. Mr. Foster is also well versed in litigating negligence and medical malpractice matters, construction disputes, as well as contract drafting. Mr. Foster handles a range of commercial litigation matters, from the most basic forms of collection lawsuits to complex litigation involving nuances of secured transactions and the Uniform Commercial Code. Mr. Foster now practices extensively in the fields of creditors' rights, representing and advising some of the world's largest financial institutions with respect to their collections matters, defense matters and equipment finance matters. Mr. Foster was born in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, and was admitted to the New York State Bar in 1984, and is a member of the Bar of all Federal Courts in New York State. Mr. Foster is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania where he earned his Bachelor of Arts in 1980, and of the Benjamin N. Cardozo School of Law where he earned his Doctor of Jurisprudence in 1983. He is also a member of the New York State Bar Association and the Equipment Leasing and Finance Association.
