Michelle focuses on the representation of creditors in collection matters and protection of creditors' rights in bankruptcy. She is creative and practical, and with 25+ years of experiences, she knows how to efficiently and effectively protect creditors' interests and recover their money and collateral.

She regularly represents credit unions, banks, lenders, leasing companies, and other financial service providers and creditors in bankruptcy matters, foreclosures, and consumer and commercial collections.

Before joining Farleigh Wada Witt, Michelle represented debtors in Chapter 7 and 13 proceedings. With experience representing both creditors and debtors, Michelle has a unique perspective that allows her to understand the strengths and weaknesses of the other side and obtain the best results for her clients quickly and efficiently.
