Daniel C. Proctor has extensive experience handling commercial litigation, civil litigation, and bankruptcy matters. His practice includes both trial and appellate work. He has more than 25 years of experience representing lenders, leasing companies, manufacturers and wholesalers, as well as various franchisors. From fortune 500 companies to small businesses, he works with the needs of businesses of all sizes. He practices out of the Concord, New Hampshire office.

Mr. Proctor received his law degree from Franklin Pierce Law Center in 1988 (now known as the University of New Hampshire Law School) and he received his BA from Binghamton University (in New York State), in 1982. He is admitted to practice in the state Courts of New Hampshire. He also is admitted to The United States Supreme Court, The First Circuit Court of Appeals, The United States District Court for the District of New Hampshire, The United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of New Hampshire, and The United States Court of Federal Claims, in Washington, D.C.

Mr. Proctor is a member of the Commercial Law League of America (Creditors' Rights and Bankruptcy Section), the American Trial Lawyers Association, the New Hampshire Trial Lawyers Association and the American Bar Association. In addition, he has been a presenter and featured speaker for the National Business Institute.
